Project Tip

Storing Seasonal Needlework

To ensure that seasonal needlework items stay looking their best from year to year, it is important to store them properly. Washable items should be cleaned with a mild soap and water solution to remove any stains or dirt. Allow pieces to dry completely so no moisture remains. Wrap all items in acid-free tissue paper and place in an acid-free box for storage. (Plastic bags or bins can trap moisture and cause mildew and staining.) The box should then be stored in a dark place, free from humidity or extreme temperatures; an interior closet is best. Linens should be refolded twice a year to prevent any fabric creases from becoming permanent.
